

Summer of Love Series – Love Is Not Dishonor

July 9th, 2023

Love is patient, Love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others... 1 Corinthians 13:4-5

Scriptures

Romans 10:20, Luke 15:17-32.

When we have compassion for others, we begin to see them differently. We begin to see God in them. They begin to see God in us.

Never have we ever felt more love than when we begin turning our energies to God. The same tongue we use to put someone down, is now used to lift people up, and raise up the name of the most-high God. The same energy we once devoted to hurting others, has now been turned to helping others. Dishonor turned in the opposite direction is honor.

So, no matter how far we think we have run from God's favor, or how dishonorable we believe we have been, when we "come to ourselves," and turn back to God, he's waiting for us.

Experience Today's Message

Who am I dishonoring that God is calling me to love?

What ways can we honor someone?

How can we show the same kind of honor as the father?